DID YOU KNOW THAT YOU CAN BE REIMBURSED FOR TRAINING

Your company can save thousands of dollars when participating through our on-the-job training program.

Up to half of your new employees wages are reimbursable to you for up to six months depending on the training program.

Customized Training

Do you provide training to your employees? If the answer is yes, then we should visit about a program that reimburses employers 50% of their training costs. For example, if your staff needs to learn the new features of Microsoft Office, needs to obtain OSHA certifications, or other types of training - we can reimburse you for those costs and improve your bottom line!
